

JOIN US AS WE

Occu-pie Traditions Cafe Fair Trade Café

October 26th from 7:00—9:00 PM

300 Fifth Avenue SW Olympia, WA 98501
360-705-2819

Occu-pie: Definition, a verb, that describes a joyous activity in which an accomplished group of friends and colleagues come together to make their claim to a piece of the pie, and the respect and acclaim that they are entitled to receive secondary to illustrious activities and accomplishments.

Performance Art & Pie Social

to benefit

Scott Yoos Legal Fund

Come enjoy a warm evening of solidarity, delicious pies, and performance art in support of Scott Yoos' legal defense fund.

$5-10 SUGGESTED DONATION; NO ONE TURNED AWAY

Artists Performing:

Blue Grass Combo, Cassandra & Kyle, Dana Walker, Danny Kelly, Holly Gwinn Graham, Jesse & Monica, Rebecca Campbell, Strife, and more....

Hosted By.

John Ford

Scott is being unjustly prosecuted in Thurston County Superior Court. The charges against him include a felony charge and stem directly from his disability--he is unable to speak as the result of an incident that occurred decades ago. Scott is a dear friend to many and a joyful member of the anti-war, nuclear resistance, and environmental movements; a volunteer at the Olympia Food Co-op; and a steadfast volunteer with Works in Progress, and much more...

"No Dress Code, Costumes are Encouraged, But Not Required."