

South Sound Project for Military Resistance & Justice and Veterans for Peace #109 present...

An Evening in Solidarity

Flanked by 40 Iraq Veterans Against the War, Lt. Ehren Watada gives a standing ovation address at the 2006 Nat'l Veterans for Peace Convention.

Spc. Suzanne Swift went AWOL after suffering sexual assault at the hands of her commanding officers. She faces court-martial for missing movement.

Featuring...

Speakers, Music, Food & Beverage, Raffle, Silent Auction

Friday, October 20th, 7-11pm

Eagles Ballroom 805 4th Ave. E
downtown Olympia

$10-$30 sliding scale

Tickets available at Traditions Café

Contact: sspmrj@yahoo.com or (360) 480-2357

Come join us for an evening of music, refreshments, and conversation. With enlightening reports from those within the peace movement, a silent auction, delicious hors d'oeuvres and Olympia's famous Fish Tale Ale, this is a night not to be missed! All proceeds benefit the campaigns for Suzanne Swift and Ehren Watada (both of whom are facing upcoming trials). We are a non-profit charity working to promote and foster friendships and understanding between the South Sound peace movement and those brave soldiers seeking solidarity.

South Sound Project for Military Resistance and Justice is a 501C(3) tax-exempt public charity (through Media Island) and the cost of admission or donation is tax-deductible.

A Benefit to support war resisters Lt. Ehren Watada and Spc. Suzanne Swift